Keep Your Pets Happy and Safe at Home During the Holidays

NAPPS' Nationwide Referral Network is the No.1 Resource for Finding a Pet Sitter

MOUNT LAUREL, N.J.— The National Association of Professional Pet Sitters (NAPPS) wants to help make the holidays stress free by helping pet parents find a qualified, professional pet sitter as pet parents prepare to visit family and friends. The NAPPS “Pet Sitter Locator” tool available at www.petsitters.org, can help pet parents find a local professional pet sitter that is, bonded and insured.

Traveling and the change in routines can be very stressful for pets. The NAPPS “Pet Sitter Locator” tool allows pet parents to choose a professional pet sitter to match their pets’ needs. Pet parents can enjoy traveling knowing their pet is safe in the comfort of their own home.

“The NAPPS ‘Pet Sitter Locator’ is a convenient resource for pet parents, especially during the holidays,” said John D’Ariano, President of NAPPS. “With a simple search, pet owners have access to contact information for member companies and the services they provide.”

Hiring a professional pet sitter is beneficial to the pet and the pet parent during the busy holiday travel season. Pets benefit from the care of the professional pet sitter while continuing their usual diet and exercise regiment in a safe, comfortable and familiar environment. Pet parents can enjoy a relaxing time away, knowing their pet is in good hands receiving lots of love and personal attention.

Pet parents can alleviate the anxiety of leaving their pets behind. By choosing a professional pet sitter, pet parents can rest assured that their home and pet will be protected and safe. Professional pet sitters are equipped with the necessary tools to ensure maximum care and comfort for your pet while pet parents can enjoy the holidays stress-free.
